

Matrix shape invariance of Hamiltonians for integrable systems in magnetic fields

Javier Negro

Universidad de Valladolid
Paseo Belen, 7
Valladolid, Spain

Joint work with: A. Contreras-Astorga, S. Tristao

We consider a particular integrable system consisting in an electron subject to an inhomogeneous magnetic field in the frame of the Dirac equation. We show that this system is integrable, solvable and that it leads to a shape invariant hierarchy of matrix Hamiltonians. Some surprising properties, with respect to scalar shape invariance, are characterized.