

AM1 overview (test preparation)

Material covered

- study material: pp. 3-38 (without p. 29)
- textbook: 4-9; 12-21; 23; 26-27; 30-31

You should study the following topics:

Grammar

- revision of tenses (mainly present, present perfect and past tenses)
- prepositions (especially in Chap. "University studies" in study material)
- questions
- false friends (study material – p. 12 + 15-17)
- word formation (study material - p. 14; textbook – p. 15 – ex. 5 and elsewhere)
- relative clauses
- simple instructions (= imperatives, see an example on p. 9 / ex. 5; 17 / ex. 6)
- passive, by x with
- conditionals, time clauses

Vocabulary

- "University studies" (in study material)
- "content" words (house, accommodate, occupy, consist, contain, include)
- "CV" – words used in CVs + words linked to the topic "employment" ("Career – Curriculum vitae / Resume" in study material; textbook pp. 26-27; 30)
- false friends (especially words used in topics "University studies" and "CV")
- movement and action verbs, preposition/adverbs used in describing direction (see study material – pp. 30-31)
- vocabulary from textbook units 1, 2, 3 and 8, especially study the following sections: p. 6/ex. 1; p. 8; p. 9/ex. 5; p. 12/ex. 2; p. 13/ex. 5; p. 14/ex. 2; p. 16/ex. 3; p. 17/ex. 6 (only verbs); p. 20 – verbs
- linking words and expressions

Others

You may be asked

- to describe a process
- to write or to correct a CV
- to write simple instructions
- to change parts of speech (e. g. a verb to a noun: compress → compression, adjective to noun: long → length etc.).